

PHYSICIAN DISCLOSURE OF FINANCIAL INTEREST

The ability to furnish patient access to exceptional andrology, embryology, and surgical services is an essential component of a reproductive endocrinology practice. Ownership in the following entities reflects my commitment to provide the highest standard of patient care in the office, laboratory, and operating room settings:

New Austin Health, LLC

Vivere Austin Surgery Center, LLC

This relationship also enhances my ability to direct the manner in which your care is delivered in both the laboratory and operating room. If you have any concerns regarding the above, please do not hesitate to contact me directly. Additionally, please be aware of your right to request referral to an alternative facility.

Sincerely,

Kenneth K. Moghadam, MD
